

RECEPTION, DISCIPLINARITY AND ACADEMIC CAREERS
A CRSN workshop for research students

7th November 2007
Birkbeck, University of London
Room 152, Malet Street

PROGRAMME

- |          |   |
|----------|---|
| 10.15 am | Coffee and registration   |
| 10.45 am | Prof.Catharine Edwards (School of History, Classics & Archaeology, Birkbeck): welcome and introduction  |
| 11.15 am | Prof.Edith Hall (Departments of Classics and Drama, Royal Holloway)'Never apologise, always explain: what to say to traditional classicists'  |
| 12.05 pm | Prof.Maria Wyke (Department of Greek and Latin, UCL)'From Roman love poetry to computer games - researching classical reception in popular culture'                                       |
| 12.55 pm | Lunch   |
| 2 pm     | Dr. Joanna Paul (Department of Archaeology, Classics & Egyptology, Liverpool)'When I grow up, I want to be a receptionist: Graduate research, early career planning, and identity crisis' |
| 2.50 pm  | Tea   |
| 3.10 pm  | Dr. Isobel Hurst (Dept of English and Comparative Literature, Goldsmiths)'Thoughts on creating a career in reception studies'   |
| 4pm      | Round-Table Discussion  |